

WBPF BRAZIL LAUNCHED ITS FIRST BODYBUILDING SEMINAR ON JUDGING IN JANUARY 2013

President Reginaldo Gomes of the Confederacao Brasileira de Culturismo e Musculacao (CBCM) and who is also the WBPF Vice-President for South American continent conducted a CBCM / WBPF judging seminar in the city of Joao Pessoa located in the State of Paraiba in Brazil for two days on 5 and 6 of January 2013. Day one was on theory and day two on practical in conjunction with the Apollo Beach Championships.

30 (thirty) new judges passed their tests and all of them were issued the National Judges Cards.

The seminar was attended by a great number of officials from both sexes and President Gomez was surprised that most of them were keen to know more about the Men's Athletic Physique, Model Physique and Women's Athletic Physique. Gomes is confident that the seminar has created awareness amongst the members and he is already planning another seminar in another city very soon.

President Gomes a lawyer by profession and a great bodybuilding champion stressed to the students that fairness in judging is important and many of them will be considered upgrading to officiate at international competitions.
