

FESTIVAL OF CHAMPIONS ORGANISED BY IRAN BODYBUILDING FEDERATION

Iran the powerhouse of bodybuilding in the world organizes several competitions annually. They have thousands of gyms scattered throughout the country, and bodybuilding is the No.2 popular sport next to football (soccer) in the Islamic Republic of Iran.

Iran is the reigning champion of the world and for the past 3 years they have been winning the WBPF Team Championships and as well as the Mr. Universe title twice in 2009 and 2011.

Bodybuilding is a recognized sports in Iran and the government subsidies them with funds for training and travelling for major competitions.

Great photos of their athletes and audience taken during the Festival of Champions are shown below:

