

BOBBY SINGH WINS THE OVERALL MR INDIA TITLE AND PRIZE MONEY OF US$ 12000 INCLUDING A CAR

Bobby being congratulated by the Executive Council members of the IBBF.

Bobby Singh of Assam took the crown of overall Mr. India in the senior National Bodybuilding Championships held in Bidar, Karnataka State, India on 22nd April, 2012.

Group photo taken at the Congress in Bidar, Karnataka State, India.

Bobby Singh an employee of the Indian Railways and posted in the North East State of Assam in India has been winning bodybuilding titles for the past few years and taking everybody in his sway. He has been maintaining his physique all year round. A hard working athlete, Buddhist by faith he is a simple man.

The panache in his cap includes two WBPF World Welter Weight Gold Medal, Asian Lt. Middle Weight Gold Medal and the Overall title of Mr. South Asian Champion Gold Medal and many more.

Opening Ceremony of the Championships by the Chief-Guest of Honor Datuk Paul Chua accompanied by Christina Kam, Prem Chand, Amit Swami, Movie Star Rahul Bhat, Baba Madhok and Chandran.

Bobby took home a Maruti Alto car presented by the organizer for winning the Overall Mr. India 2012. This was one of his best performances.

The senior National Bodybuilding Championships was organized by the Karnataka Bodybuilding Association an affiliated state unit to the Indian Bodybuilders' Federation and the championship attracted over 270 bodybuilders and also 11Ms. Fitness competitors for the first time.

Prize money of over US$ 32,000 were given in 10 categories of body weight.

The inaugural Ms. Fitness was a great hit amongst the audience and the winner was Soniya Mitra of West Bengal.

IBBF under the great leadership of Baba Madhok and efficient working of the General Secretary Chetan Pathare and Executive Vice-Presidents Amit Swami and Prem Chand is gaining strong footing in India. The great team work professed by Baba and his Executive Committee is admired and respected by all member units of the Indian Bodybuilders' Federation. Baba is a strong leader who courageously merged for the unity of India and working in harmony for the betterment of bodybuilding and physique sports in India.