15TH SABPF CHAMPIONSHIPS 2025: BHUTAN HOSTS PRESTIGIOUS SOUTH ASIAN BODYBUILDING & PHYSIQUE SPORTS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Thimphu, Bhutan - The Kingdom of Bhutan proudly hosted the 15th South Asian Bodybuilding & Physique Sports Championships 2025 in its capital, Thimphu. Organized under the aegis of the South Asian Bodybuilding & Physique Sports Federation, the championship received full support and approval from the Bhutan Olympic Association and was officially sanctioned by the Asian Bodybuilding & Physique Sports Federation (ABBF) and the World Bodybuilding & Physique Sports Federation (WBPF).

The event drew enthusiastic participation from eight South Asian nations: Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka. The opening ceremony was graced by Lyonpo Tandin Wangchuk, Honorable Health Minister of Bhutan, as the Chief Guest. Also present were Datuk Paul Chua, President of WBPF and ABBF, and President Ibrahim Hameed of SEABPF, alongside distinguished dignitaries and delegates from across the region.

In their opening addresses, Datuk Paul Chua and Lyonpo Tandin Wangchuk warmly welcomed athletes and delegates, highlighting the power of sports in fostering unity, promoting friendship, and encouraging healthy competition among South Asian nations. This championship marks a significant milestone for Bhutan in the international sporting arena, reflecting the country's growing commitment to promoting physical fitness and regional cooperation through sports.
